

EMIS Change 25-58

This change adds reporting guidance to the Majority of Attendance IRN. This guidance is for students who have been expelled. Updated guidance is required given that such students are no longer withdrawn (see change 24-33).

Updated (March 15, 2024). This document originally referenced the wrong EMIS Manual Section. That has been corrected, and the correction has been highlighted below.

Reporting Instructions.

Note that if the school year ends prior to the relevant MOA date, then the MOA end date is the last day of the school year. If the school year starts after the Friday of the first full week of October, then the MOA start date is the first day of the school year.

Expelled Students. For expelled students, MOA reporting depends on the student's enrollment dates, the student's expulsion dates, and whether the student received education or services during the time of the expulsion. Students who are enrolled from Friday of the first full week of October through March 31 and are expelled after March 31 have met FAY requirements. The district should report MOA IRNs for such students.

Students who are enrolled from Friday of the first full week of October through March 31, are expelled before March 31, and are receiving education or services during the expulsion have met FAY requirements. The district should report MOA IRNs for such students.
